

What should I already know?

- How to react to opponents actions.
- How to work as part of a team
- The benefits of participating in team games

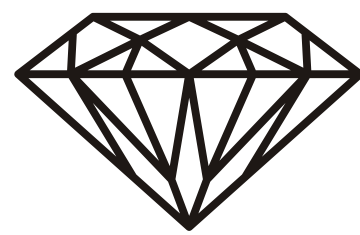

Gems of Knowledge

Procedural knowledge -

- Show control and accuracy in your performance.
- Mark your opponents in order to prevent them from dominating.
- Work well as part of a team.

Declarative Knowledge -

- Identify what you need to do improve your performance.
- Understand the importance of communication and how this impacts the success of your team.
- Consider how you can attack and defend in order to gain control.

Team Players!

- FOCUS -
- Develop tactics for attack and defence.

Vocabulary

Compete - Playing against others to win.		Attack- Be proactive in preventing your opponents from taking control.
Communicate = Talk with your team mates, so you can react to their actions.		Defend - React to you opponents in order to stay in control and dominate the game.
Apply - Think of all of your skills from previous learning - how can you use them in this context?		Assertiveness - Be confident in your decisions and show control.	