Florence Nightingale Abstract Portraits

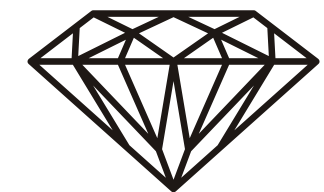

What do I know already? I know how to:

- hold a pencil correctly and use with control
- use scissors and paintbrushes
- begin to show skill and care when drawing
- safely use and explore a variety of materials and tools
- use colour

I will know how to draw an abstract portrait of Florence Nightingale by:

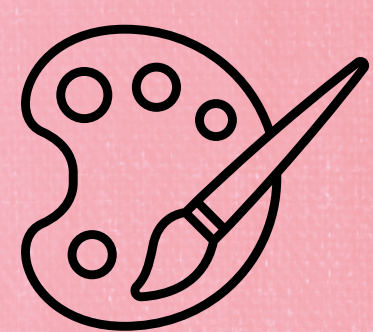

- drawing lines of different thickness
- using lines to show pattern and texture
- using pencils, rubbers, crayons or chalks (media)
- drawing lines and shapes from what I have seen
- showing tone by drawing light/dark lines, patterns and shapes
- showing something about me in my drawing
- looking at Paul Klee or Picasso to inspire my work

Key Vocabulary:

abstract		art represented through lines, shapes, colours and forms
colour		the way that an objects reflects or emits light.
detail		a small part of art, enlarged to show its features.
line		lines can be horizontal, vertical, or diagonal, straight or curved, thick or thin.

portrait		a picture of a person usually showing the face
shapes		shapes have two dimensions—height and width—and are usually defined by lines.
spaces		the area between and around objects
texture		how something feels when it is touched.

Artist Focus -Abstract Portrait Artists (to be shared by the teacher)_

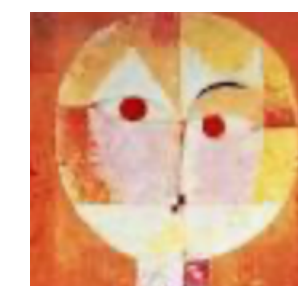

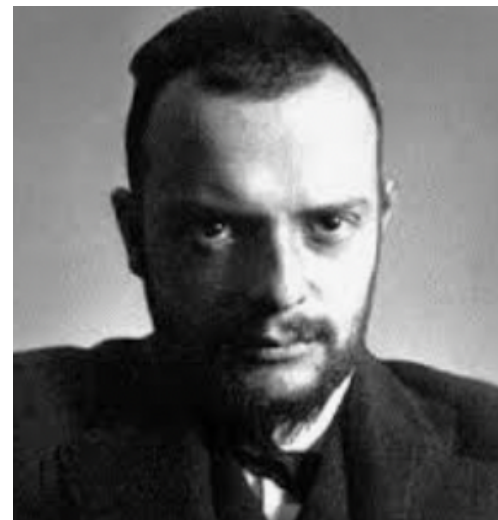

Pablo Picasso

Picasso was born in Spain in 1881. From an early age he loved to draw and by the age of eight, he could draw more realistically than his art teacher. One of his most famous portraits is the Portrait of Dora Maar, 1937. Picasso painted Maar in the Surrealist style, using bright colours and angular shapes

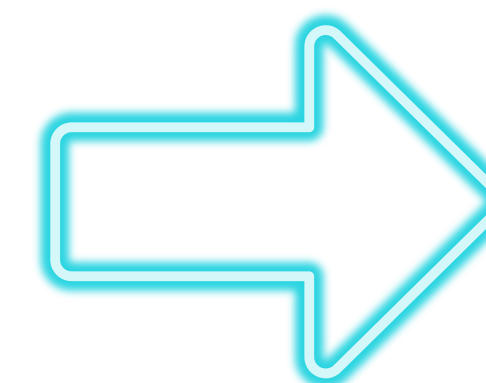

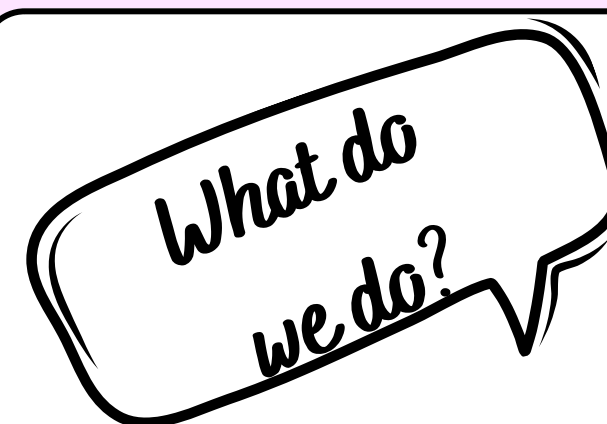

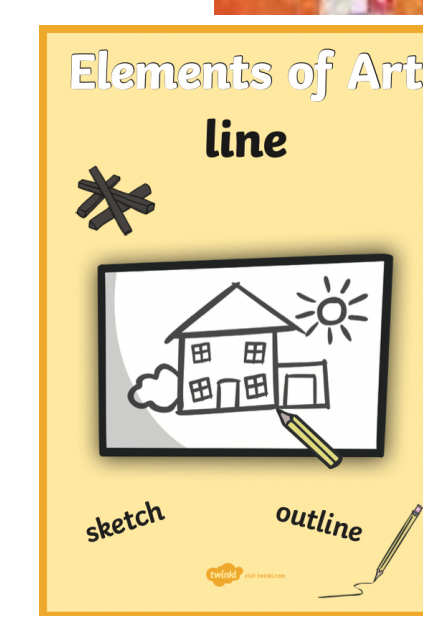

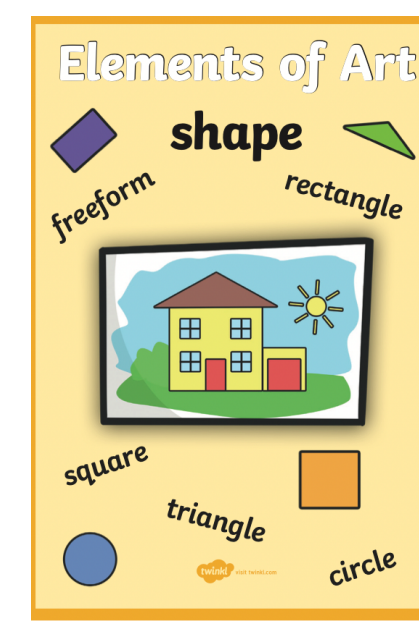

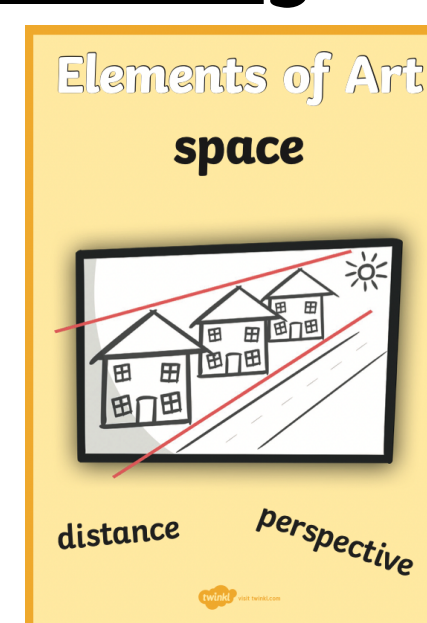

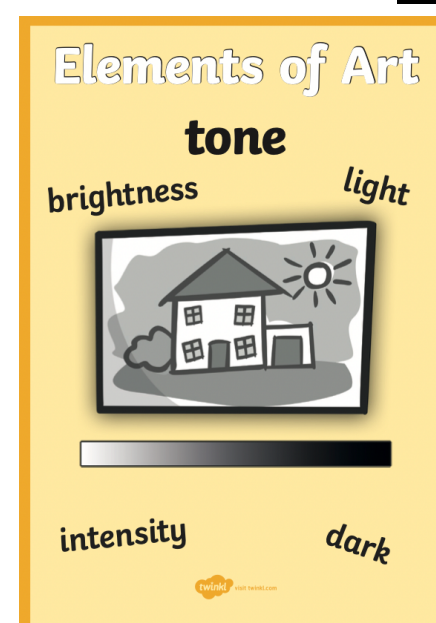

Paul Klee

Paul was born in Switzerland in 1879. One of his most famous portraits is Senecio. Senecio is a bright, abstract portrait painted by in 1922
