Video Production

I have already learned:

- That I can use editing software to change how images look, or improve images
- To experiment with different editing tools and describe how they change an image
- To change the composition of a photo to make it more balanced

Creating Media

Careers in media ✕

Videographer

Plan, record and edit videos for events, documentaries etc.

KNOWLEDGE GEMS

I am going to learn:

- How to use different types of framing and camera angles in my videos
- To plan a video including the filming techniques I will use by creating a storyboard
- To use the recording setting and features on my video device to improve the look and sound of my video
- To reshoot and edit to improve my video

Outcome:
To plan, create and edit a video in the style of a DanTDM video.

Vocabulary

production	The action of creating and refining a video framing	How the subject is positioned within the video e.g. close up/far away or centred/to one side
angle	The direction that the camera is pointing in relation to the subject zoom	How close up or far away the subject is panning	Moving the camera as you film
static camera	Keeping the camera still as you film
export	Saving the changes you have made to a video as a file

Computer Science

How computers work and how they are made.
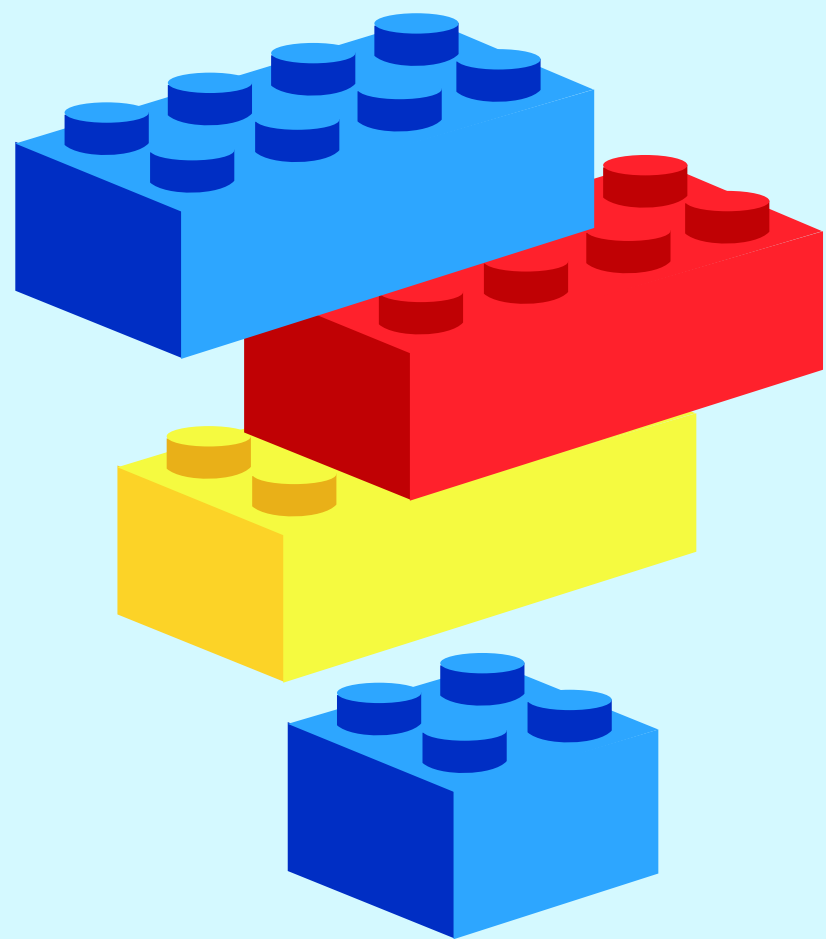

Information Technology

How to use computers to create digital content.

Digital Literacy

How to be safe and responsible on computers.

Which strands of computing have you been learning about today?

T

BITESIZE

Building Blocks to E-Safety

E-Safety Tips

- Protect personal information: Never share your real name, address, or phone number online, and use a creative username.
- Choose safe platforms: Use kid-friendly video-sharing platforms with parental approval, and avoid inappropriate ones.
- Respect copyright and consent: Always use legally licensed content and obtain permission when filming others.
- Be kind and avoid cyberbullying: Treat others respectfully in comments and report any mean behavior..

"Through the lens of creativity, we capture the moments that make life an extraordinary masterpiece."