

CHARACTER EDUCATION

Me and My Relationships
Spring 1
Cycle B Year 5/6

What I already know:

- Recognise changing emotions as they grow up.
- Explain how behaviours affect others.
- Strategies to express how they are feeling.

British Values

- Democracy
- Rule of Law
- Respect and Tolerance
- Individual Liberty

Key Vocabulary

empathy

the ability to understand and share the feelings of another.

respect

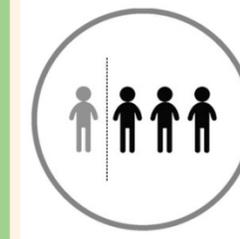

a positive way of treating or thinking of someone, recognising their value and importance.

stereotype

a set idea that people have about what someone or something is like.

discrimination

treating a person differently, especially in a worse way in which you treat other people because of their race, gender etc

relationship

A connection between people.

Gems of knowledge

I will be able to:

- Recognise and challenge gender stereotyping.
- Appreciate the value of friendship.
- Describe the important qualities in a friend.
- Recognise that some secrets are unhealthy and it is ok to ask for help.
- Identify different types of families.
- Explain why it is important to show respect for differences.

What can I read?

