

What I already know:

- That families can be different all over the World.
- That families can sometimes experience problems.
- Boundaries that we have in our friendships.
- When a relationship is harmful to me and who I can trust.
- How to balance what different people want.
- What bullying is.
- What the impacts of stereotypes are.
- How you can help someone going through grief.

Gems of knowledge

I will know:

- The qualities of a good friend and which of those I have and that we all have a range of qualities that make us who we are.
- That friendships have ups and downs but that I should communicate with kindness and respect.
- The difference between being assertive and controlling.
- What respect is and how it should be shown.
- Why someone might be a bully.
- What marriages and civil partnerships are.
- How attitudes and laws around gender have changed over time.
- A range of stereotypes and that they can lead to discrimination.
- What bereavement is.

I can read

British Values

- Respect and Tolerance
- Individual Liberty

Key vocabulary

Year 5/6 - Families and Relationships - Cycle A - Spring

Qualities

Personal traits that make someone who they are.

Assertive

Speaking up for yourself in a calm and respectful way.

Controlling

Trying to make others do what you want or decide everything for them.

Marriage

When two people who choose to be partners are legally seen as a couple.

Civil Partnership

Similar to marriage but it doesn't involve a traditional ceremony.

Discrimination

Treating someone unfairly because of who they are.

Bereavement

The feelings of losing someone you love when they have died.